

The ranking of proposals will be based on the weighting of the four criteria. The minimum thresholds are indicated as follows and the weight of each criterion is 30%, 20%, 20%, 30%, respectively.

CRITERIA OF JUDGEMENT

Scientific merit of the proposal	Qualifications and experience of the candidate	Host institution	Impact of the project
Scientific and technological quality, and relevance of the scientific questions including any interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary aspects of the proposal.	Scientific publications and quality of previous research, CV, independent thinking and leadership.	Quality and adequacy of facilities of host and international collaboration of host.	Potential of transferring knowledge to host.
Research methodology and innovative nature of the project and relationship to the “state of the art” of research in the field.	Match between the fellow’s profile and the project, and benefit of the mobility period for the career of the applicant.	Practical and administrative arrangements and support for the hosting of the fellow.	Potential for creating long term collaborations and mutually beneficial co-operation between academic institutions and enterprises of the region of Umbria and the host institutions.
Timeliness and relevance of the project, and ability to address and handle ethical issues in research.	Potential for reaching a position of professional maturity, and potential to acquire new knowledge.	Capacity to implement the project.	Potential and quality of lasting professional integration (expected length of work contract, expected career development).
Potential of transferring knowledge to European host and/or bring knowledge to Europe.	Clarity and quality of the research training opportunities for the applicant; relevance and quality of additional scientific training as well as of complementary skills offered.	Practical arrangements for the implementation and management of the project.	Contribution to career development or re-establishment.
Clarity and quality of the transfer of knowledge and skills; and Industry-academia transectorial component of the knowledge transfer.	Track record in training experienced fellows in the field and proven capacity to provide mentoring/tutoring.	Feasibility and innovative aspects of the project, including work plan.	Contribution to European excellence and European competitiveness.
Threshold	3	4	4